SAVIOR

1969

Dear Flowy,

Well, I guess I haven't got to know you, because I haven't got to know you at all. I had fun anyway and I hope you did too. You have a great personality and a sweet sense of humor. It was fun getting to know you. Remember to be good to the ducks and the birds and the squirrels and the boys and girls in the neighborhood. Don't forget to always have fun and always be good to others. Be good to the boys and girls in the neighborhood and always have fun and remember to always serve the Lord. Keep those drunks out of trouble and remember to always serve the Lord. Keep them drop. Remember to always stay in school and always stay out of trouble. Keep those grades up. Keep up your smiles and watch how you act this summer. And always remember to watch your smiles and watch how you act this summer. Keep up your smiles and watch how you act this summer. Keep up your smiles and watch how you act this summer. Keep up

Sorry I didn't write to you in P.E. with a whole lot in it. The tennis courts when you weren't there. Hard luck and boo hoo.

Love ya,

Susan
It has truly been a pleasure having you in Spanish I & II. You and Sarah this year alone kept the class alive and jumping. I have only known you a short while, and I hope to get to know you better next year. Stay sweet and have fun over the summer vacation. May God Bless you always.

Did it hurt?

Hmm . . . Hi, Ruthie.

Susan (my love),

I here isn't very much room left to write but I'll try my best. Another year has gone by & we are going to be Jrs. next year. It really doesn't seem like two years have gone by already. It's sad. This year has really been great. The reason I'm writing on this page is because it is the memories page. We have had alot of memories some good & some bad but I don't remember the bad as much because the good make up for the bad. Next years thunder is going to be really great, at least I hope it will be. Since you are now a "variety" cheerleader (I am a loyal pom-pon (I can't wait!), Susan we have had "our" little (little) differences but that's only natural, you have been a really great friend & I hope it can remain that forever & ever. Even though I haven't been able to understand you at times I still think you are the "greatest". Even though I have cut down some of your "brains"

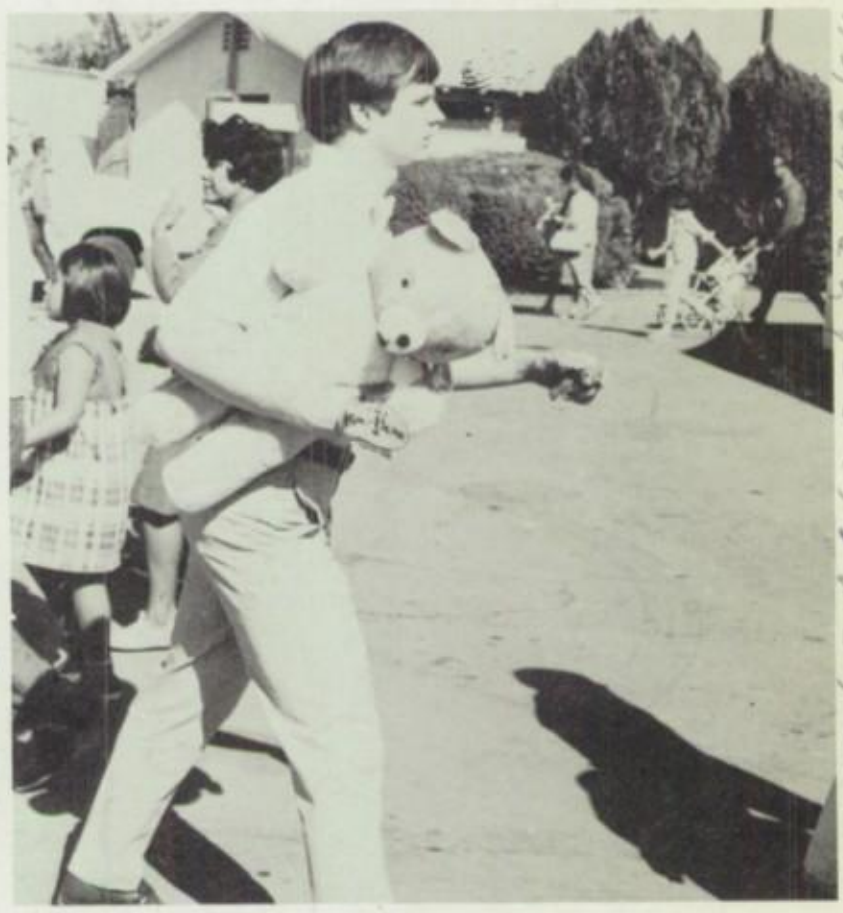
MEMORIES . . .

I didn't mean it really. I was just kidding just think we are going to graduate in two whole years. Remember the time with the Model A? Boy that was something like never again! Boy, people really think we are twins sometimes but I'll agree with them. But I don't care what people think. You are going to make a real good cheerleader S.C. Yes. & you did a real good job of boys pres. this year. You are really sometime. And I love you for it. Just think next year I'll have my license. Oh, no!

Remember how the routine went, Mr. Sawyer?

Linda remembers who won the game?

Remember, Shirley, there's always another game.



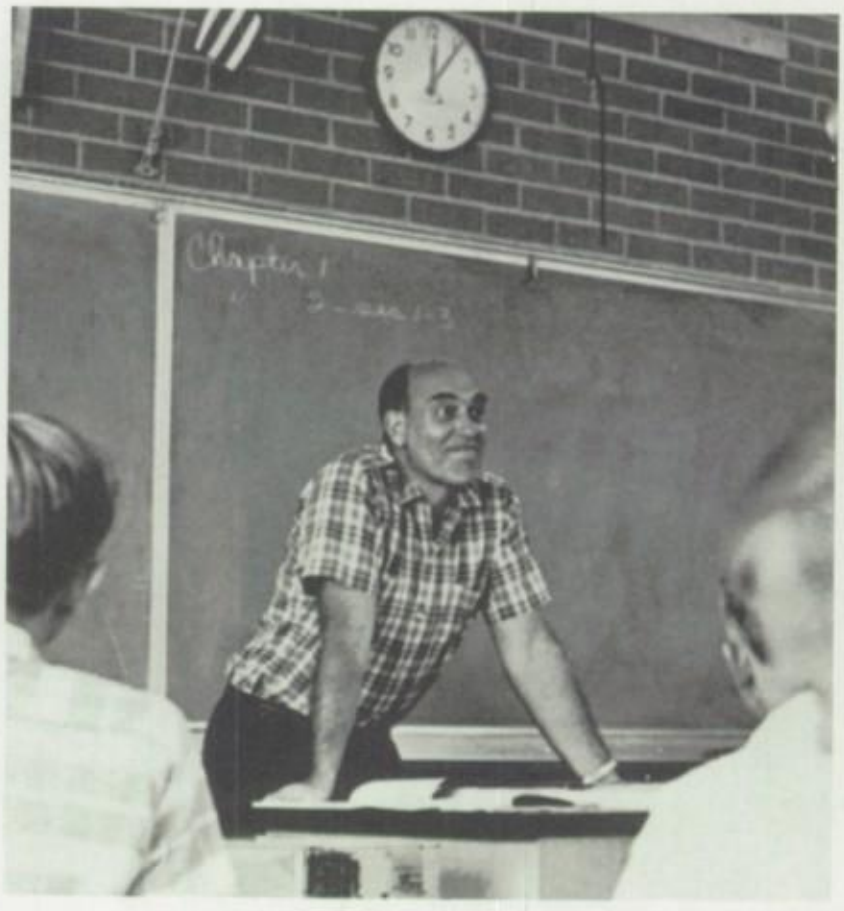
Do you remember how much it cost to win it, Gary?

Remember party was a blast next year you can have another one & I'll have one, too. Are we still going to go to Europe. I sure hope so. Let's keep in touch this summer. OK. Since you have a phone now & you have a license. Come down & see me anytime be good this summer & don't get into trouble please for "me". Remember I will always be #1. And don't forget it. May God Bless & keep you. Always #1 Keep smiling! Love ya

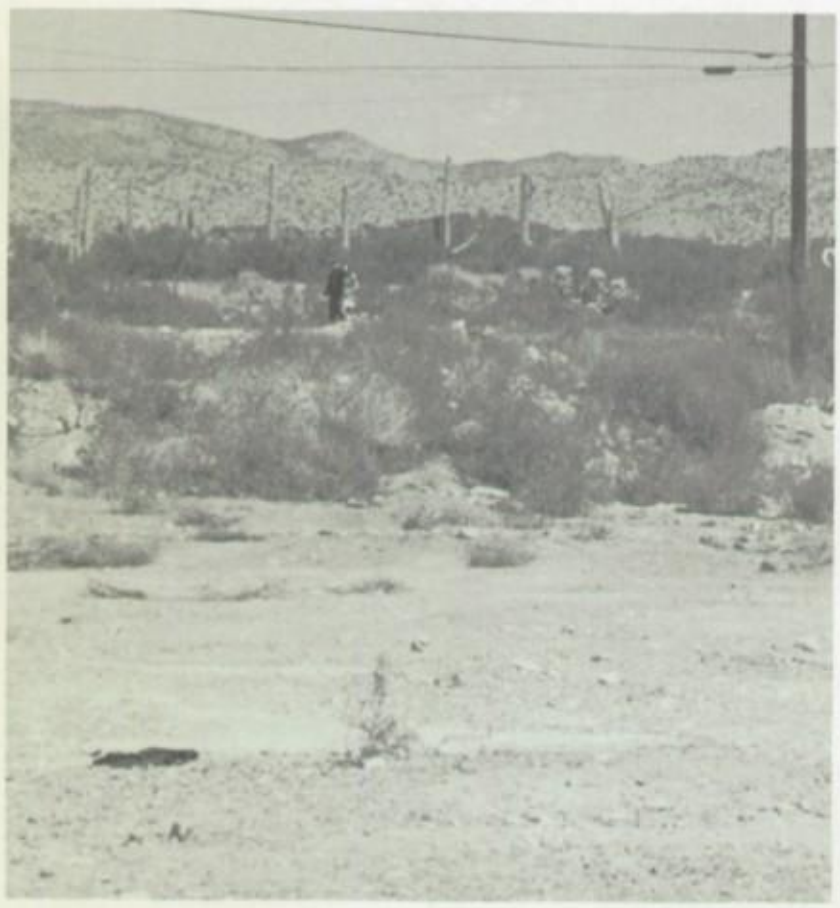
Peace be with you Bobbi

MEMORIES OF WORK AND PLAY

Jack, remember when you disagreed with Rep. Udall?



Remember what problem you were discussing then, Mr. Taft?



Couples always remember experiences like this.

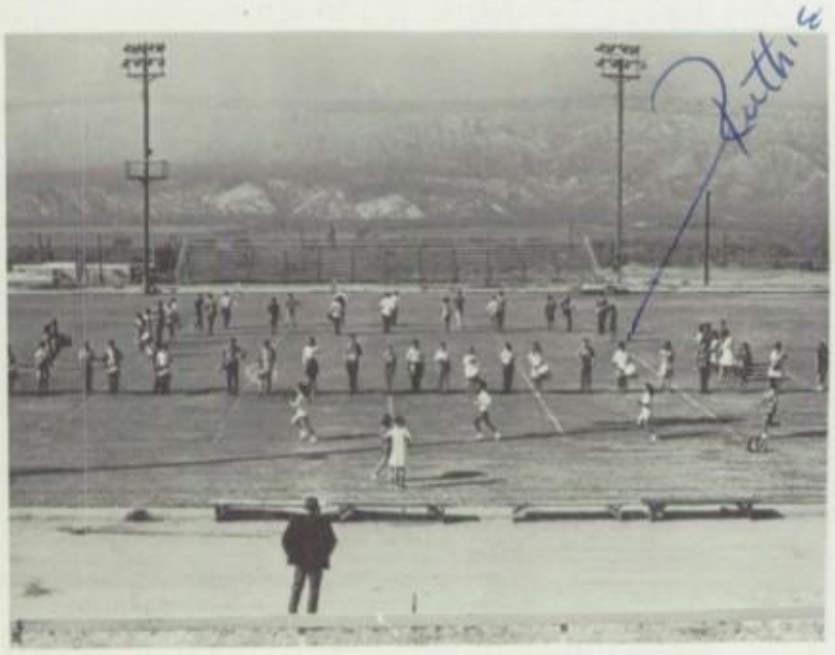
Do you remember how you got out of that one, Linda?

Lissa forgot to do her homework the night before.

The girls remember all the hours of volleyball.

Staff, remember all that work?

Bill, did you forget to do your homework?



Band members remember the run cadence.

Seniors remember times like this at R. D. H. S.

The first day of school - and the first day of American History.

Aren't you supposed to be listening, Gus?

STUDENT

Who is behind all that?

That "e" was here just a minute ago, I know it was!

"...meet Mr. Shakespeare on my left..."

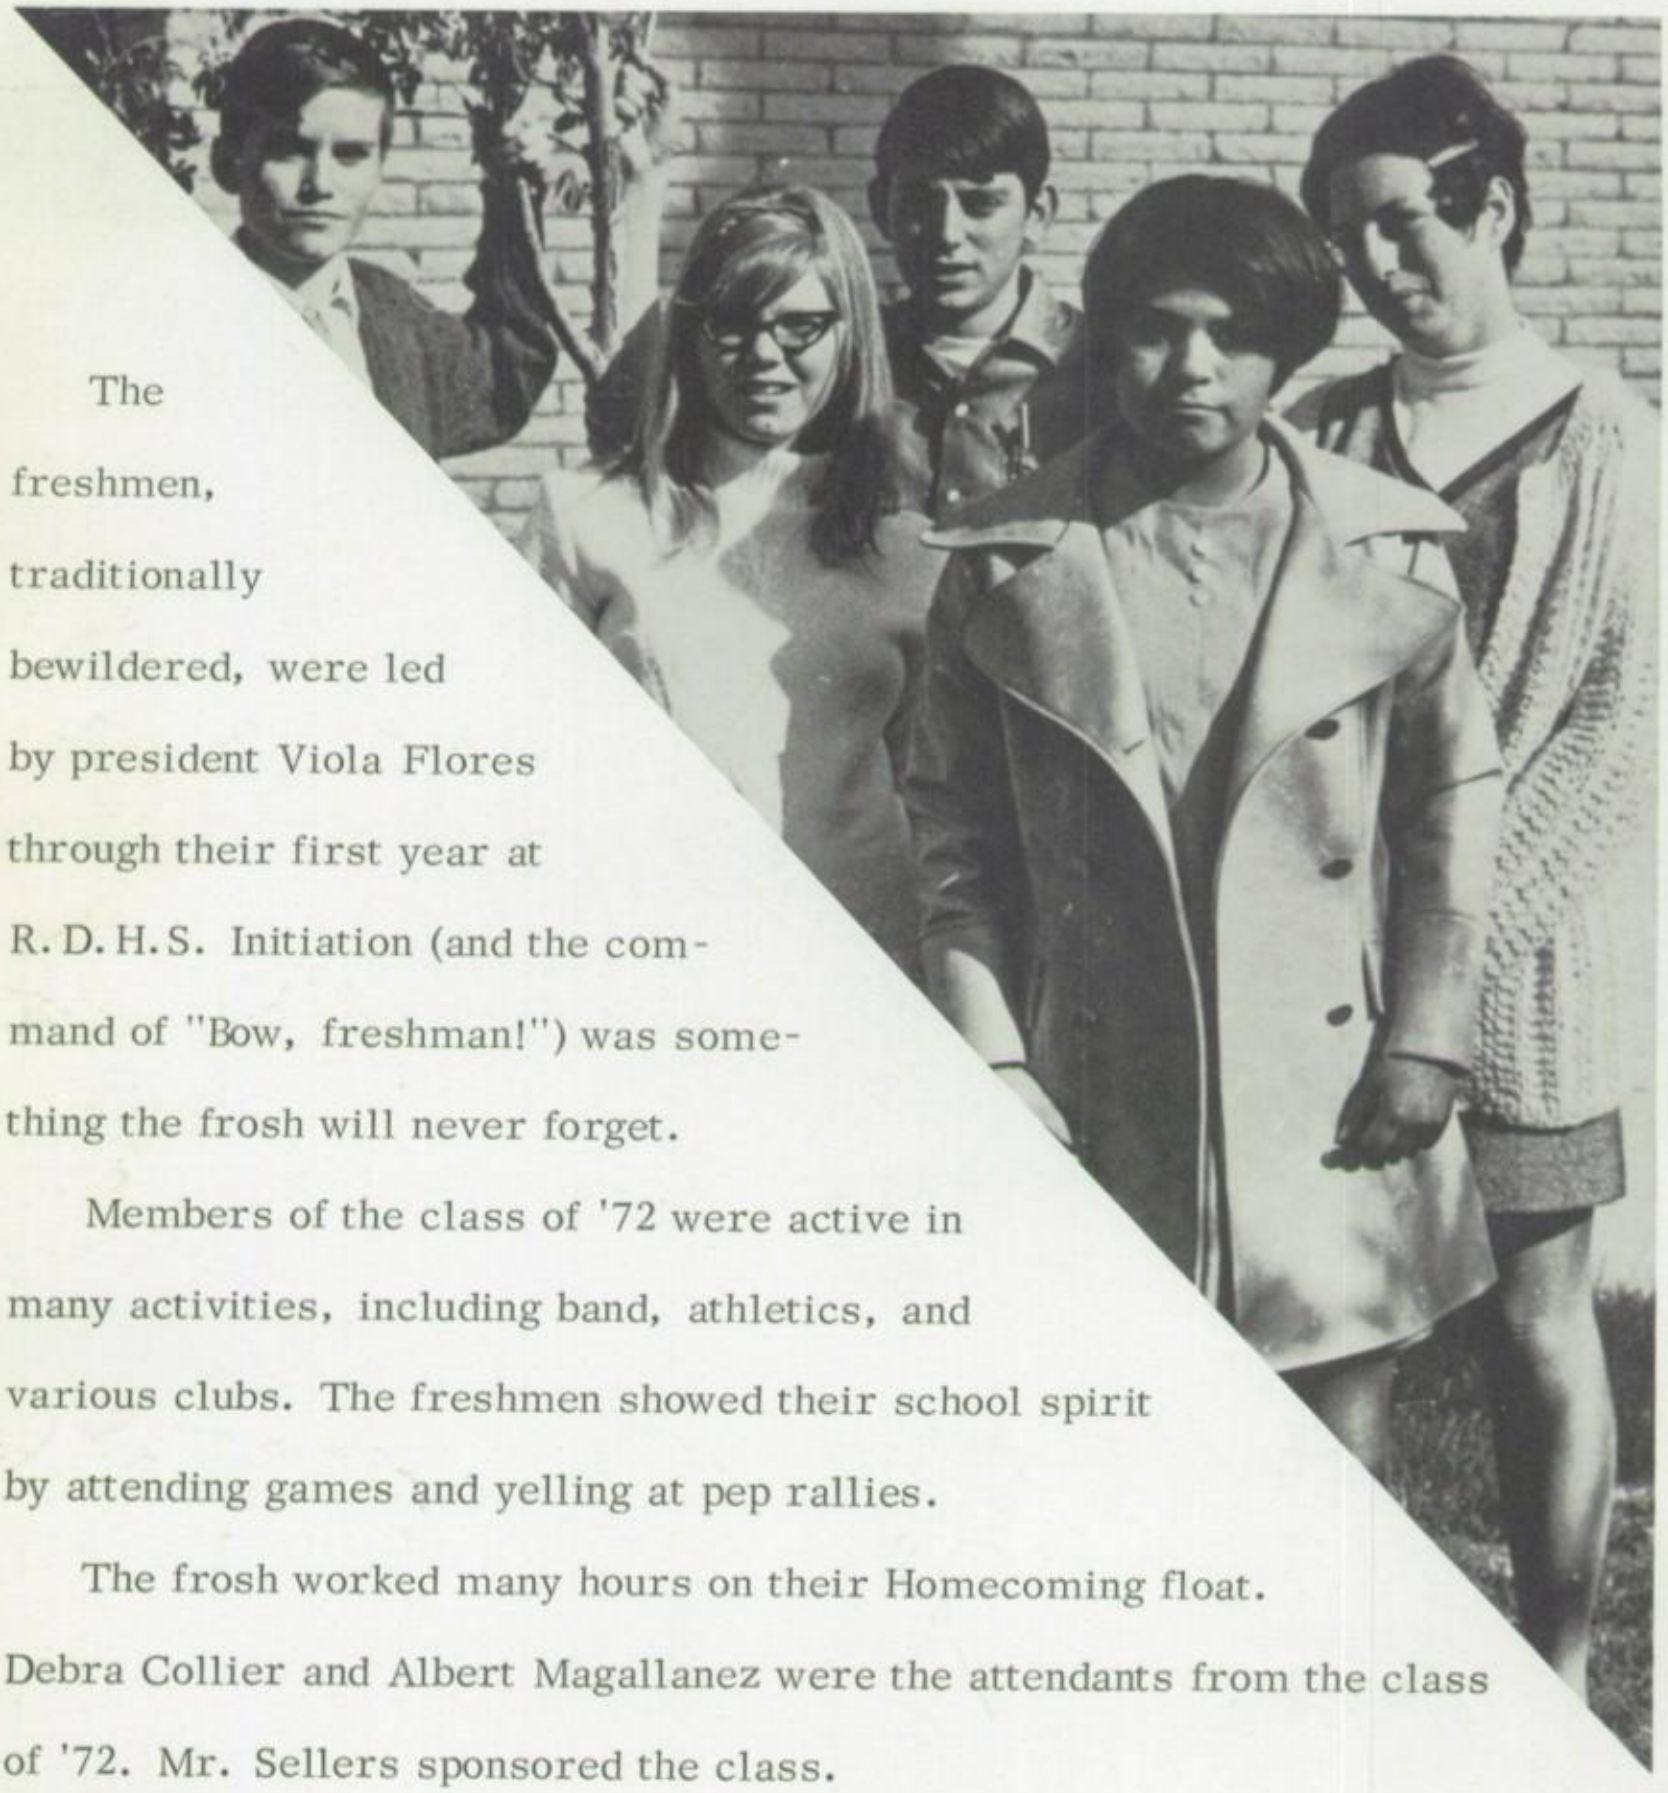
What's so interesting in that magazine? Anything to get away from studying!

BODY

Jim, what could be more interesting than American literature?

"Now, you should have used an adverb clause here and placed a comma there..."

HUMBLE FROSH LED



The freshmen, traditionally bewildered, were led by president Viola Flores through their first year at R. D. H. S. Initiation (and the command of "Bow, freshman!") was something the frosh will never forget.

Members of the class of '72 were active in many activities, including band, athletics, and various clubs. The freshmen showed their school spirit by attending games and yelling at pep rallies.

The frosh worked many hours on their Homecoming float. Debra Collier and Albert Magallanez were the attendants from the class of '72. Mr. Sellers sponsored the class.

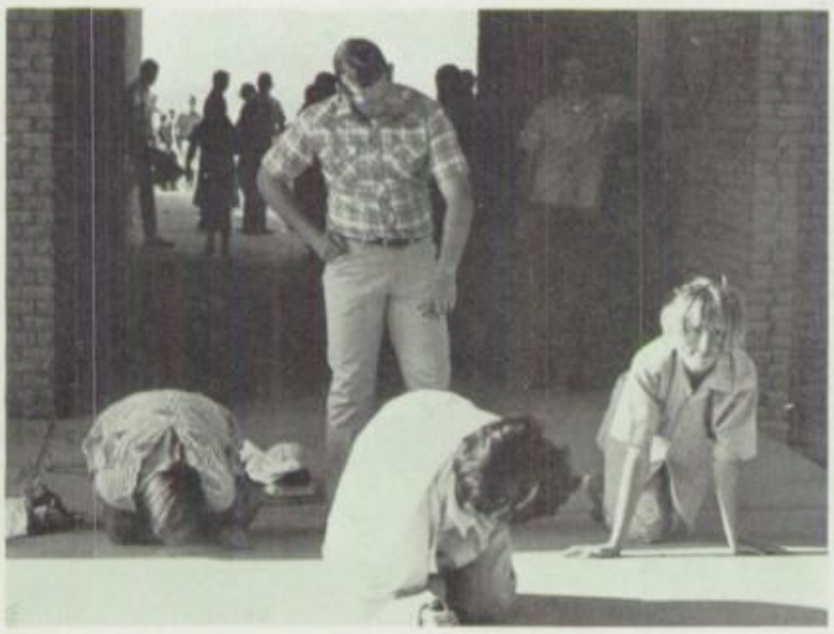
INITIATION DAY

Putting finishing touches on a float is needed even though the band may already be in formation.

For freshmen, initiation is long and tiring.

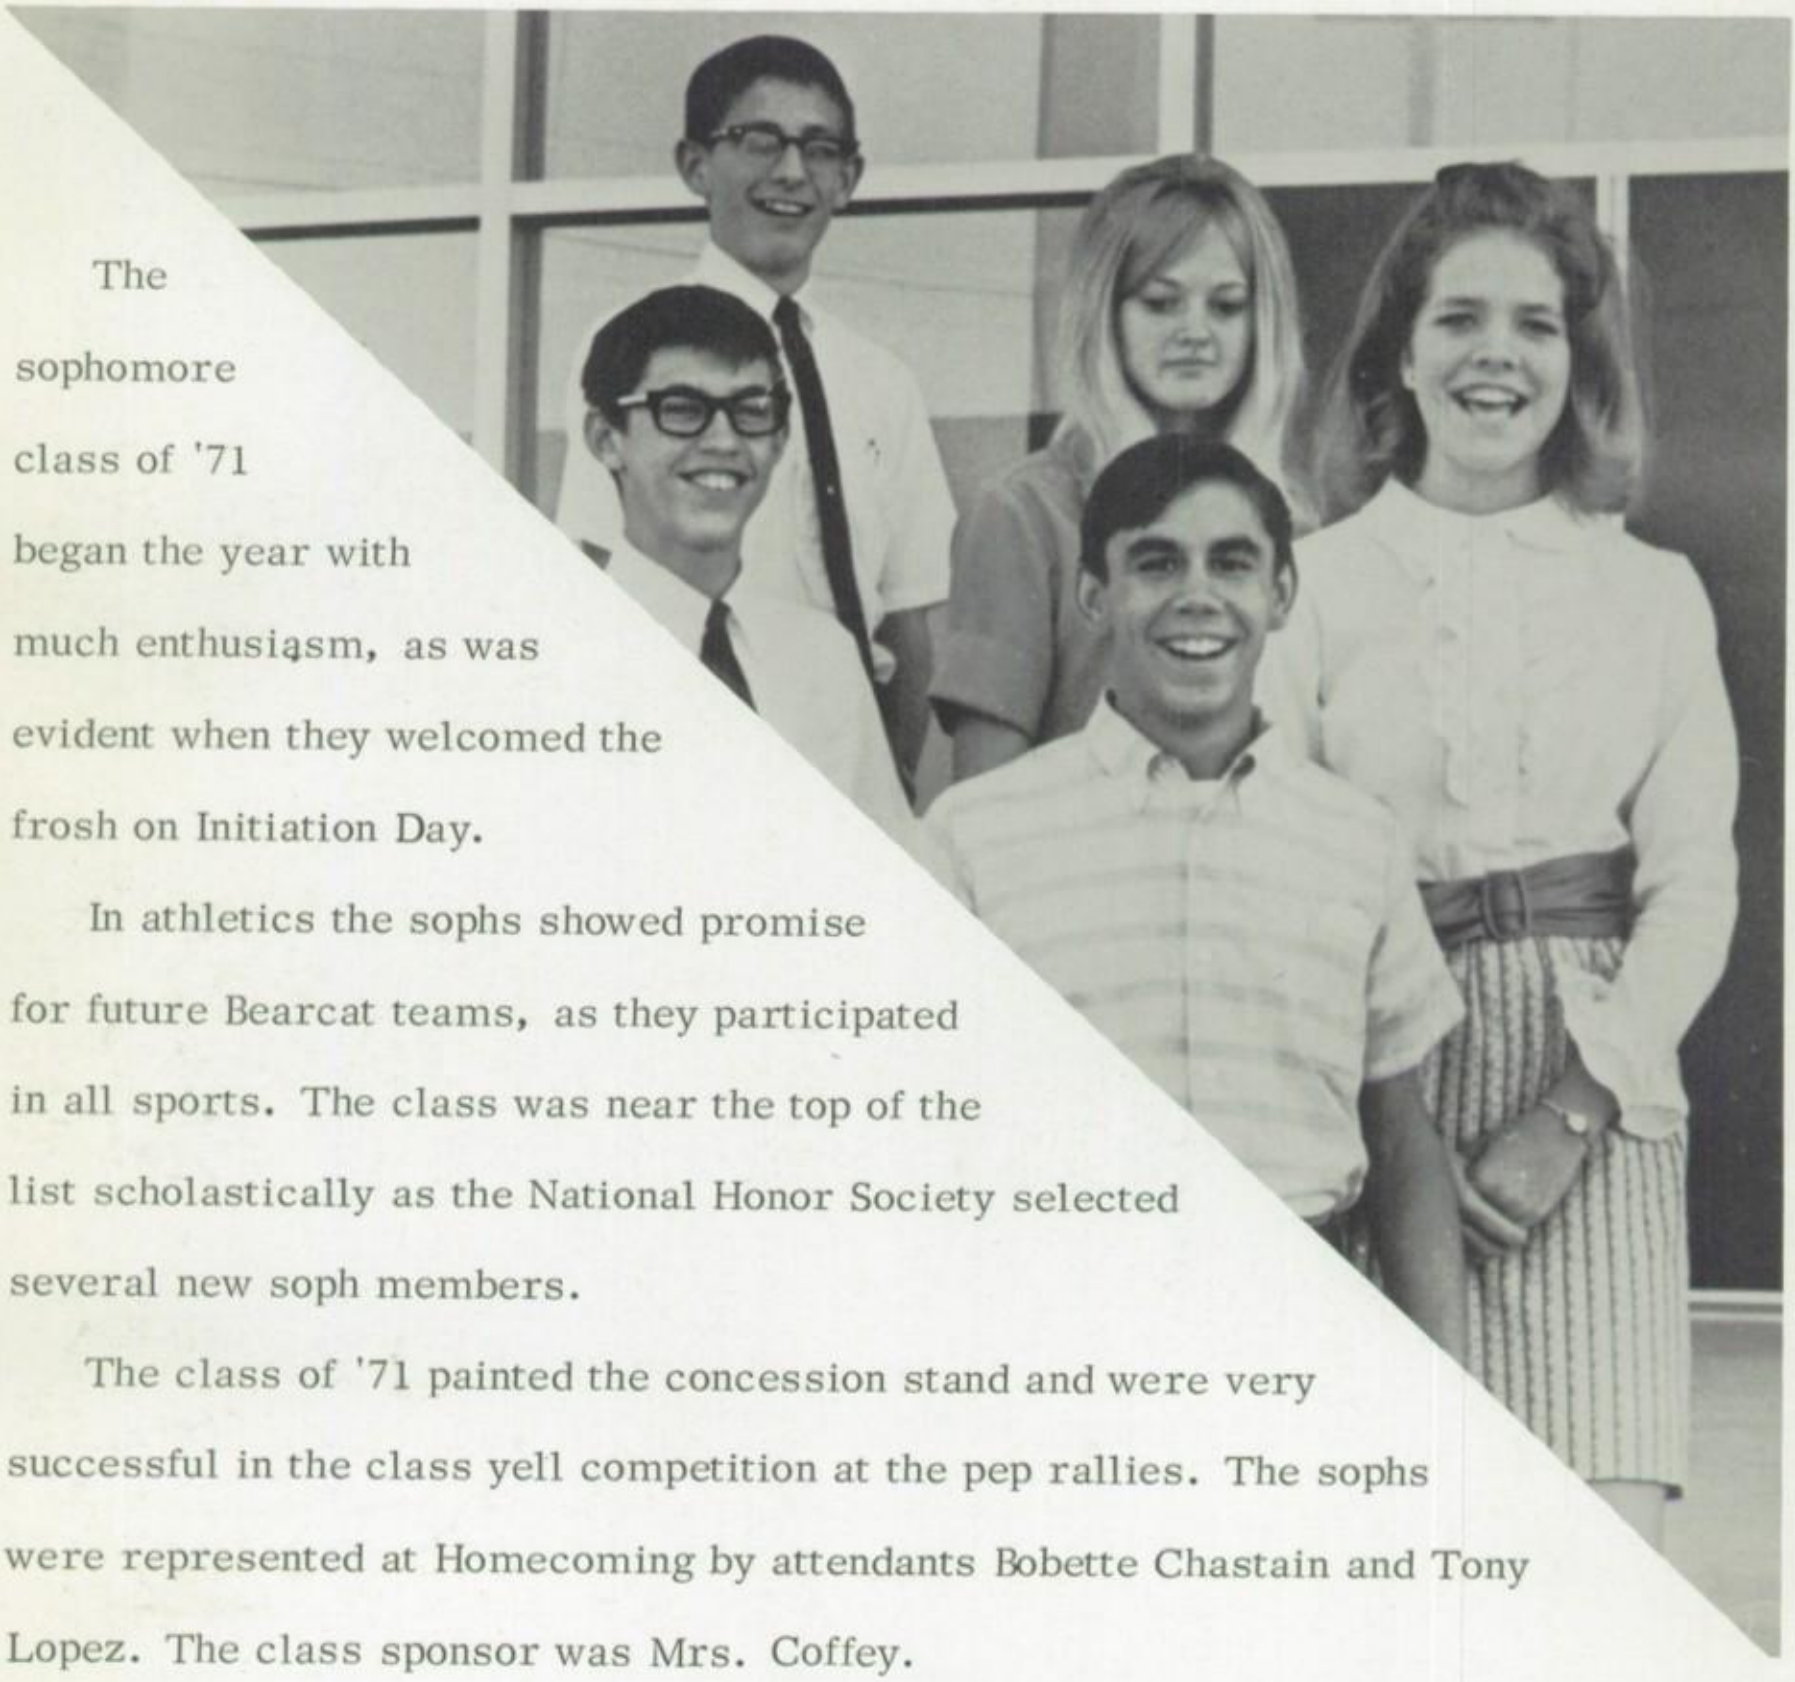


"Frosh, what I tell you goes. Get down there and push!"

Yes, Judy. There is a penny down there for you to push.

What (or who) could capture the attention of three freshmen so well?

SUSAN FLUHARTY



The sophomore class of '71 began the year with much enthusiasm, as was evident when they welcomed the frosh on Initiation Day.

In athletics the sophs showed promise for future Bearcat teams, as they participated in all sports. The class was near the top of the list scholastically as the National Honor Society selected several new soph members.

The class of '71 painted the concession stand and were very successful in the class yell competition at the pep rallies. The sophs were represented at Homecoming by attendants Bobette Chastain and Tony Lopez. The class sponsor was Mrs. Coffey.

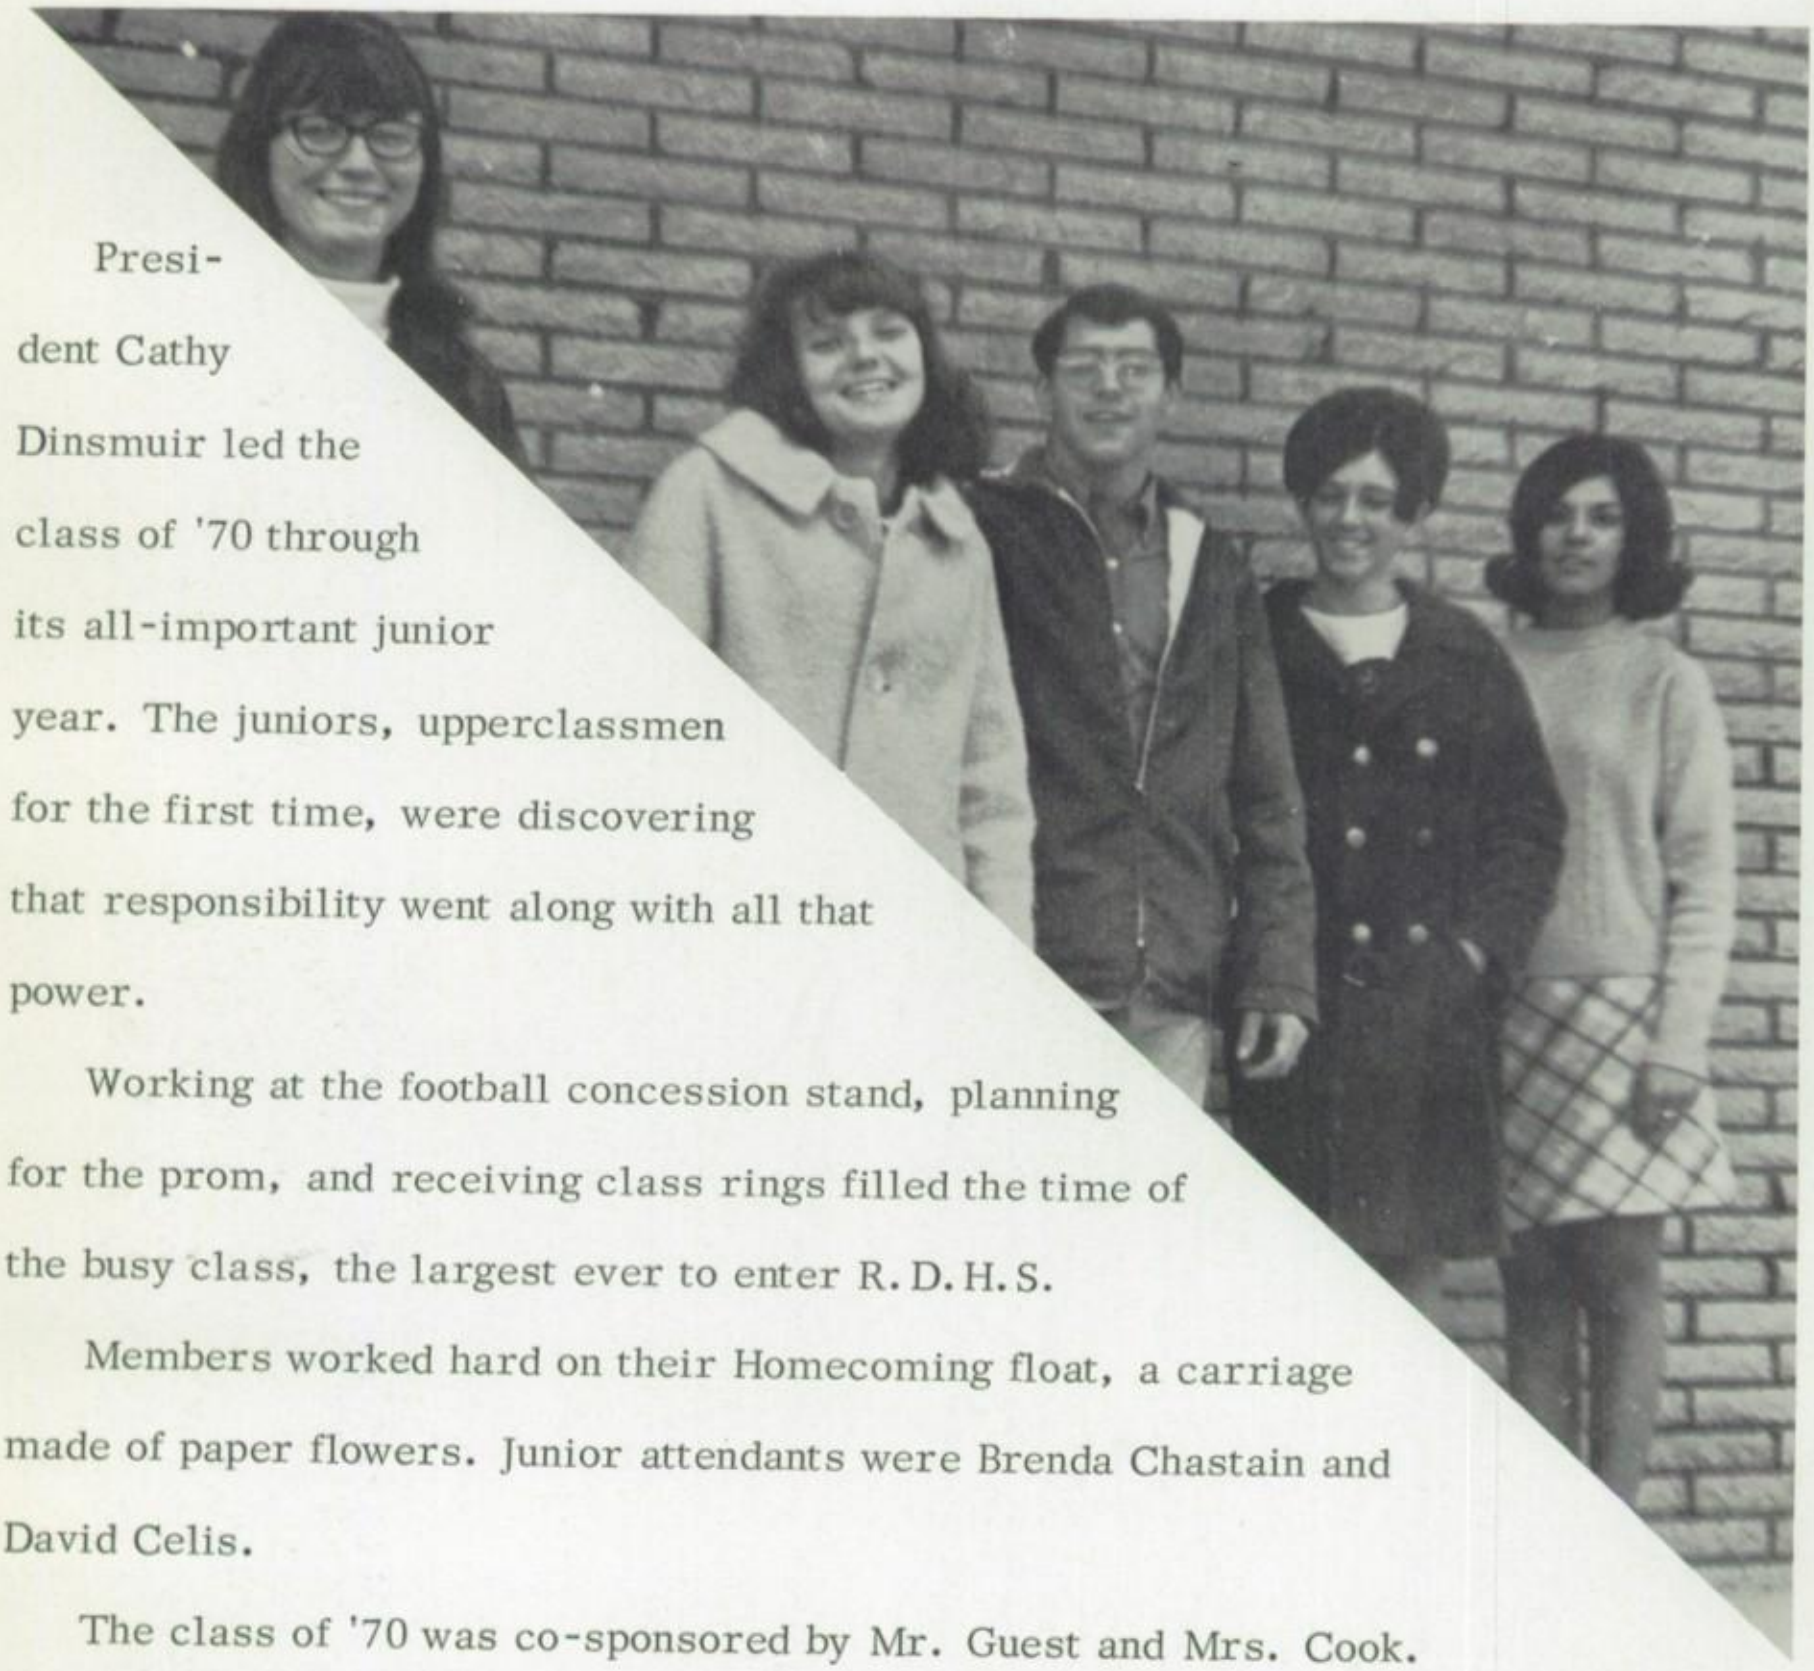
'68—'69 IMPORTANT



President Cathy Dinsmuir led the class of '70 through its all-important junior year. The juniors, upperclassmen for the first time, were discovering that responsibility went along with all that power.

Working at the football concession stand, planning for the prom, and receiving class rings filled the time of the busy class, the largest ever to enter R.D.H.S.

Members worked hard on their Homecoming float, a carriage made of paper flowers. Junior attendants were Brenda Chastain and David Celis.

The class of '70 was co-sponsored by Mr. Guest and Mrs. Cook.

JUNIORS WORK HARD

Juniors are in charge of the concession stand to earn money for the prom.

They had fun, too, though. Do you remember this time, Brad?

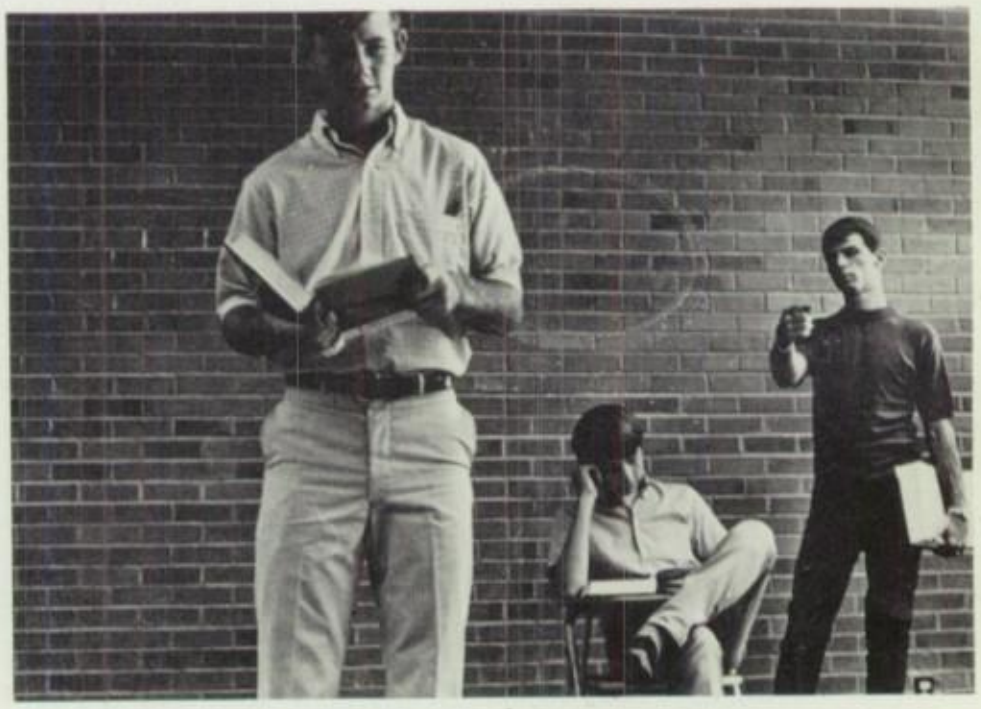
Laura played "Dorothy" in the Land of Oz on the juniors' float.

Hey Matt! Sock it to em.

So that's the way it was, Huh Kelly?

Today, I am a man!

Intriguing.



Boy, why didn't I think of that?

CLASS OF '69

Led by president Phil Bidegain and sponsors Miss Smith and Mr. LaVelle, the members of the Class of '69 finished their years of high school with a surge of activity. The seniors won Christmas decoration competition and gathered the most wood for the annual football bonfire.

The senior class homecoming float, which won first place in the class competition, honored the homecoming king Gilbert Alvidrez and queen Alice Alvidrez.

Finally graduation, the dream of every student, arrived. As the seniors marched through the commencement exercises, they looked back on their years at Ray District High with fondness and gratitude. Each had gained much more than an education during their high school years.

Seniors remember . . . .

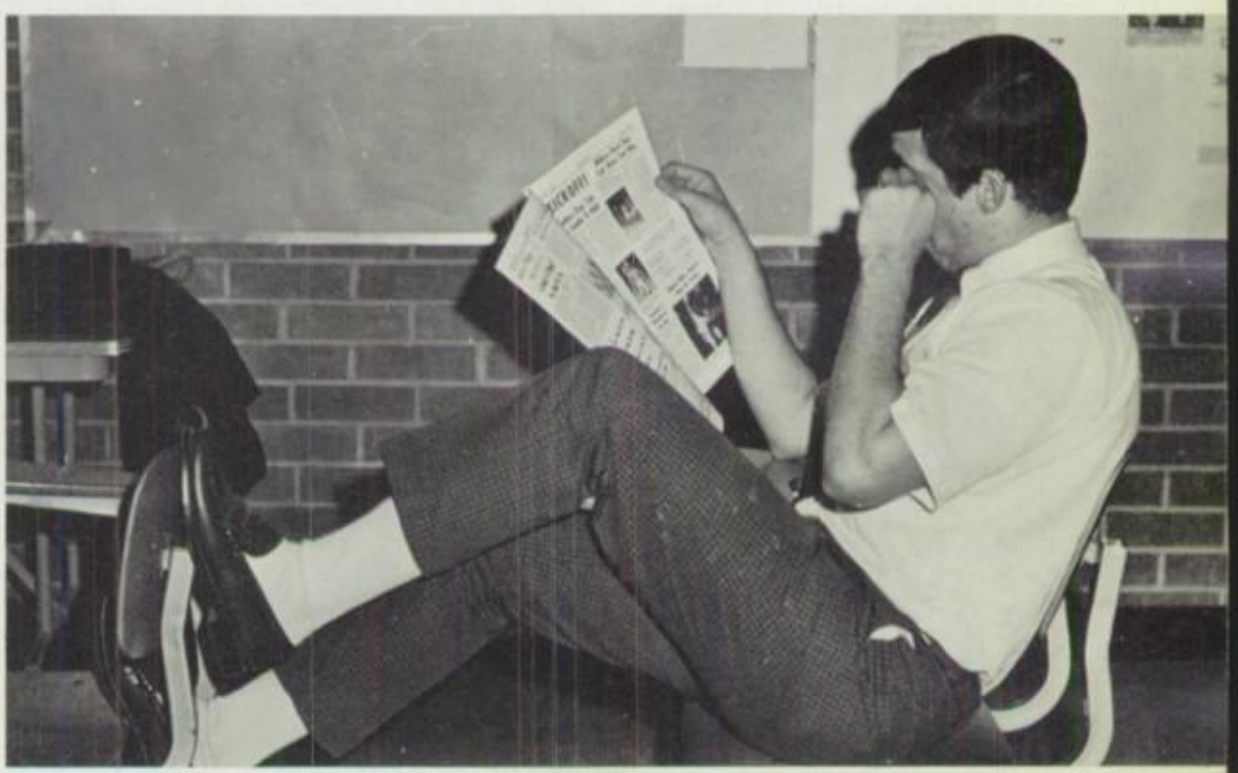
Would you believe . . .

I didn't quite catch that last remark.

I'll hold the light, you do the work.

Cataloging is tedious but necessary.

Good stage lighting in the auditorium improves any production.



Is it easier to play in a game, or read about it later?

Halftime shows sometimes need strange props.

Remember that Student Council skit?

A teacher instructs a student to think for himself so he can get along better in the world. He is not just concerned with teaching petty facts that will be of no use to a student later on!

FLAG GIRLS HELP BOOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

The R.D.H.S. flag girls worked hard during the year towards adding to the color and spirit of our school. Led by Eliza Guzman, head, the squad practiced hard so its performances in pep rallies and football halftime shows would be successful. The girls also marched with the band and accompanied the musicians to the U. of A. Band Day and the State Fair.

During the first period, the flag girls were privledged to go over to the grade school and assist various teachers there. They received a credit for this and were graded.

Mrs. Mcfee sponsored the flag girls and dedicated much of her time to helping them.

Two of the flag girls attended a camp this summer in order to learn new routines and basic facts about their squad. This helped the girls to know and understand better what they were to do and just what was expected of the R.D.H. flag girls.

The best memories of the school year are the many honors and awards received by students throughout the 68-69 season.

With the ending of football season comes the selection of a king and queen for the Homecoming festivities.

Next came the contest for Surveyor king and queen. The contest is determined by the couple turning in the most money.

With the coming of spring came the selection of king and queen for the Jr-Sr. Prom. This honor alone would send anyone into a heaven never to be forgotten. The theme of the prom this year was "Forever Spring".

Boy Staters

Girl Staters

On the awards part of the school year, the Girls' and Boys' Staters were chosen first. The Girls' Staters chosen were Cheryl Maize and Cathy Dinsmuir. Mary Louise Feldhake was chosen as alternate. Boys' Staters chosen were Jim Celis and Brad Justesen. Alternates were David Escalante and Gary Barrass.

Next to be chosen was the DAR recipient. She is chosen on the basis of dependability, responsibility, service, leadership and patriotism displayed in various aspects of community and school life. Leslie Taft was chosen by the faculty to be the recipient of this award.

All of the many awards given are long remembered and surely never to be forgotten. They play such an important part of the school year, we truly hope they can be remembered as the Greatest Memories ever.

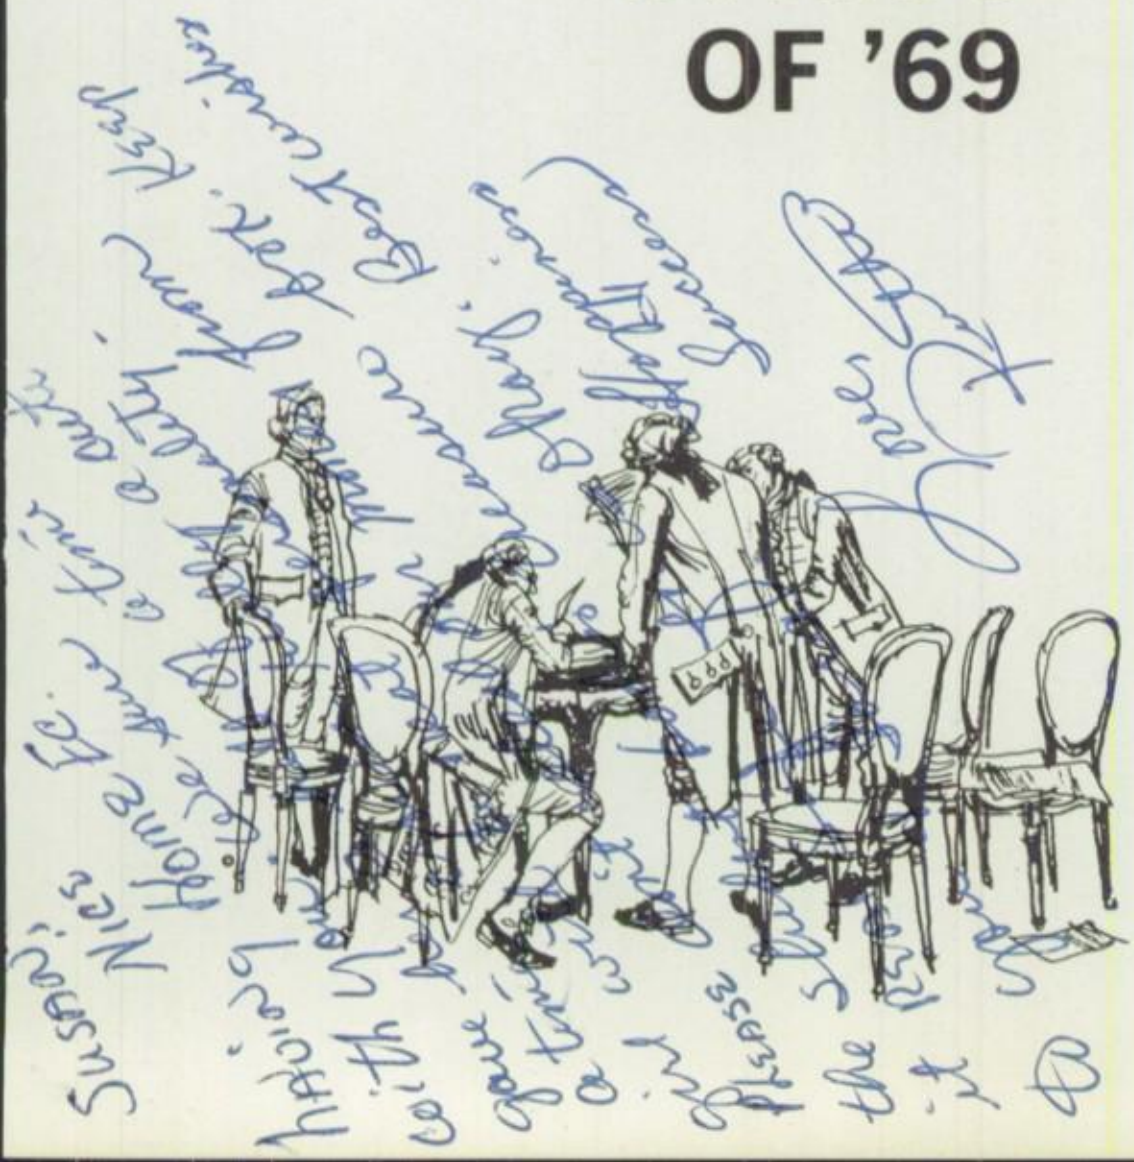
TO OUR STARRY-EYED CYNICS OF '69



Congratulations!
You've just conquered the world.
Watch out it's not booby-trapped.

You have some choices ahead.
High school grads, we're told, are both cynics and idealists, and often on the same day. You're pragmatists in the morning and dreamers in the afternoon. You're self-doubting and sublimely confident, unyielding and Henry Clay-like, callous sentimentalists.

Those dual personalities of yours are now to be put to the test. As you wise, all-knowing fledglings step forth into the world, you'll be called upon often to make choices of high importance. Your choices will be shaped by those opposing notions now choosing up sides within your developing personality.

How to choose? In some cases, the starry-eyed approach will ring true. Others will call, quite rightly, for the cautious eye of the cynic. The choices are yours. We're confident you'll choose right.

Be glad you live in a land that lets you!
